

Afternoon

29 YEARS OF COVERING MUMBAI

DESPATCH & COURIER

Gold: ₹30,230 • Silver: ₹43,465 • US Dollar: ₹60.13
Temperature: 34°C/28°C • Humidity: 63%

Woman's World Pg13-20

Where was Priyanka all these years?

PRIYANKA VADRA, daughter of Sonia Gandhi, is becoming unnecessarily emotional in the current election campaign. She has threatened Modi that "each polling booth in Amethi will take revenge." She asserts that Modi has "insulted my martyred father in Amethi, the people of Amethi will never forgive him."

Priyanka should refrain from dragging her father, Rajiv Gandhi, who lost the elections miserably in 1989 due to the Bofors scandal, into the current campaign.

She should have stepped up to explain the telecom scandal, the coal scandal, the Asian games scandal in Delhi. She was silent all along. Now, when she finds her brother Rahul pilloried at campaigning, she is picking up the gauntlet. Let Priyanka explain all the Congress scandals and incompetencies e.g. inflation, unemployment, declining FDIs, etc. and her deafening silence all these years.

A little knowledge is always very myopic and dangerous. Priyanka will realise this, when the election booths across the country take revenge against a government steeped in corruption and indifferent to the poor.

GANDHI GIRL: Priyanka Gandhi, who was nowhere to be seen until some days ago, was recently found attacking BJP prime ministerial candidate Narendra Modi, blaming him for dirty politics.

Priyanka, Indians want results, jobs, infrastructure, control on inflation, clean administration. It does not matter whose brother, sister, wife, girl friend or son you are. Only delivery and integrity count. Welcome to a new India.

— Rajendra K. Aneja, Wadala